

His Honor and Bijah.
AT COURT AT THE CENTRAL STATION COURT.
There was an old man in the corridor, an old, old man, with long white hair and trembling limbs. The old man had been found drunk.

When his Honor came to the door, he sobbed in his ear, and they went to see the veteran.

"I'm sorry," said his Honor, as he held his hand on the old man's white hair, "and I can't have you brought out there to be searched. You ought to be in Heaven, old man, instead of being a prisoner."

"God helping me, I won't drink again," sobbed the veteran.

"I'll help you to the ferry dock," said his Honor, and he went to the corner and whistled.

And his Honor watched the two, white-haired men around the corner and whistled.

"It was according to rule to pass him out, but the best said."

And that's his Honor, and that's Bijah. Sympathizing with the helpless, encouraging the unfortunate, dealing out justice to the vicious and obdurate. May men deal as fairly by them as they deal by men.

A FINE POINT.
"Have I the honor of addressing Sarah McIntosh?" inquired the court, as a little old woman with a sun-burned nose stepped out.

"Yes, sir, my name's Sarah Jane Annand Williams McIntosh," she squeaked in reply.

"Well, Sarah Jane Annand Williams McIntosh, why did you turn a head-on at Mrs. Durand, and let your screams resound a whole neighborhood?"

"I want a lawyer!" she cried, raising her hat-tips.

"I'm sorry, Sarah, but all the lawyers want to be drunk. Bill celebration and none of them have returned."

"Then I want a jury."

"And there is no jury, my dear woman. All the men who generally sit on the jury have gone to the circus, or are getting ready to go."

"Then I want to go home."

"Are you young or not guilty?"

"That's my business."

"Answer me, Sarah."

"I want."

"Very well, Sarah Williams Annand. It now remains my solemn duty to lay you away in the archives of the future for the next four years. The sunburn will have left your nose by that time. Your voice will be weaker and your hair will have turned grey. Mrs. Durand won't recognize her old neighbor."

"Sarah Williams Annand, is my name," she spiritfully replied.

"That's a fine point, Sarah, but I've got lots of time, and I will remark that Sarah Jane Annand Williams McIntosh has been drawn from the society of the old, hearted public for the space of ninety days. Now go in and take a front seat on the new horse."

16x22.
"Hold up your head, swell out your chest and inform us, James Manchester, of the leading incident in your career for the last twenty-four hours," said his Honor, the next prisoner.

"He is the man who broke that window," explained Bijah.

"Ah, yes. On or about the solemn hour of midnight last night, you sallied down Larriard street and palisading and with wickedness of thought, broke down the window and destroyed a glass of glass measuring 16x22, the said glass being situated in and on window."

"There was a fellow in there going to lick me," explained the red-necked James.

"And his name it was—what?"

"I dunno that, but he drew a knife on me about four weeks ago."

"Where was it?"

"I don't remember, but I know he's a regular rough."

"And you fear him?"

ALBION HOTEL,
McGILL STREET AND ST. PAUL STREET, MONTREAL, CANADA.

HAS for twenty years past been the favorite resort of the general travelling public in the United States, as well as of Canada, when visiting Montreal on business or pleasure.

It is centrally located on McGill Street, the great thoroughfare and commercial centre of the city, commanding a magnificent view of the River St. Lawrence, the Victoria Bridge on the left, and a full view of Victoria Square and Mount Royal on the right. The Hotel is furnished throughout in a superior manner, and everything arranged with a view to the comfort of guests.

As one of the largest hotels in the Dominion, having ample accommodation for 200 guests, while kept in first-class style, the charges will be moderate. The travelling community will consult their own interests by recommending the Albion Hotel when visiting Montreal.

DR. WILLIAM GRAY'S
Before Taking. After Taking.

SPECIFIC MEDICINE
Cures all NERVOUS DISEASES, such as TREMORS, DEBILITY, PROSTRATION, &c., which in many cases are produced by over-indulgence in tobacco and alcoholic spirits; but the Specific Medicine is more especially recommended as an unfailing cure for SEMINAL WEAKNESS, SPERMATORRHEA, LEUCORRHOEA and all diseases that follow as a consequence of Self Abuse, or Loss of Manhood.

Physicians, London, and many other Diseases that lead to Debility or Consumption, and a Premature Grave, all of which, as a rule, are caused by deviating from the path of Nature and over-indulgence.

The Specific Medicine is the result of a life study and many years of experience in treating these special diseases. Full particulars in our pamphlet, which we desire to send free by mail to every one.

The Specific Medicine is sold by all Druggists at 25 cents per bottle, or six bottles for $1.50, or sent free by mail on receipt of the money, by addressing

WILLIAM GRAY & Co.,

Assault on a Train in a Drama.

ATROCIOUS MURDER OF THE ENGINEER
A Brave Express Messenger.
ATTEMPT TO GET AT THE MONEY BOXES.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 9.—At about 1 o'clock this morning an express train No. 6, bound east on the Vandalia route, drew up at Long Pond, a watering station, about 41 miles west of this city, the Adams Express car was uncoupled, and two armed men boarded the engine, each presenting a revolver at the engineer. Milo Ames, an Indianapolis man, commanding him to "let her go. The

The engineer was stupefied by the suddenness of the attack, and stood motionless as the men passed him. He was not even prepared to open his eyes, but still he did not move.

THE ENGINEER KILLED.

The robbers, finding he did not obey their commands, and having no time to lose, threw upon him simultaneously. One bullet struck him in the chest, and another one below his shoulder blade. He fell back, instantly killed. The other ball struck the engineer in the neck, and he fell back, a streamy, with the vest pocket of Ames. The men, who were waiting for the engineer, where he was about to adjust the water pipe, seeing a pair of dangerous looking fellows, and the engine, and wisely concluding that the engine was the source of valor, jumped off into the ditch. The robbers finding themselves in possession of the lever down to the last notch, and opened the engine, and the engine, and a full head of steam on, and, under very circumstances, the engine could have drawn the single car attached to it for several miles. The engine was not yet set, and of this the robbers were should be refuse to obey. The car was provided with doors only on the sides, there being no entrance through the front of the car. The messenger, James Burkhardt, had guessed at the state of affairs when the car started off at such a high rate of speed.

Without living stopped long enough for the engine to take water, and he began to barricade the doors, throwing his heavy and large packages of freight against them in such a manner as to make it extremely difficult for any man to force an entrance.

A MAN OF ORIT.

Having done this he examined his revolver and sat down to wait for an attack. He had not long to wait. The car stopped and he soon heard the sound of voices coming upon him to open the door. This was the first of the men who had been waiting outside. He saw that they were fully armed, and would kill the first man who attempted to enter the car. At 4:15 the robbers began firing into the car; a firing that this did not produce the desired effect, the robbers commenced firing out the door with a crow-bar, an axe, and a sledge hammer. For ten minutes they worked and pounded away like demons, without producing any perceptible effect. At 4:30 the robbers decided to leave the car, and, as the passengers ceased, and soon a party of passengers came up from the train which had been left behind, the robbers fleeing to the woods. The approach of the robbers, and the nature of the damage of these highwaymen, the greatest excitement had prevailed among the passengers, none of whom knew at the time about the detachment of the 10th Cavalry. The excitement continued until it was about 5:30, when the train was met by Conductor Frailey, in company with

Not to be caught with chaff. Burke, still wishing to be on the safe side, refused to open the door. The passengers, among whom was Jack V. Cleve, an engineer in the employ of the road, got on board the engine, which was then started. It was not until the train had reached Casey, the next station, would Burke open his door.

THE MURDERED ENGINEER.

The body of the murdered engineer was found on the engine. It was placed in a baggage-car and brought to this city, where the dead man will be buried.

THE JAMES BOYS.

The voices of four men were distinctly observed directing and managing the the moment the train stopped at the Washington station, although only two minutes had elapsed since the train started on its way. The robbers were in the train and attacking the express car. From this it is inferred that the robbers were none other than the James brothers, who have become notorious. There was not sufficient light to distinguish the features of any of the party, but every circumstance points to this gang of desperadoes as the rascals who made this daring attack.

NEW YORK.

The authorities of the Town of Cambridge, Mass., have offered $150 reward for the capture of the murderers. The Vanderbilt Railroad Company have offered $1,000 for their capture. Five men are now under arrest, and it is believed that they will be able to furnish proof of the guilt of any of them.

—France now seems to be the principal source into which the gold of the world is poured. In the first three months of the present year the imports of the precious metals exceeded 500,000,000 francs, or several times as much as in the same period of 1905. The bulk of the gold came in gold coin and bullion. The sources of this supply were much more various than they may be supposed, for much less than half of the total came from the United States. Contributions also received from the Netherlands, Belgium, Spain, Portugal and what was also not received from the United States. By the end of the first quarter of 1906 the cash looked up in the vaults was 1,535,000,000 francs, or $307,000,000. The balance of the gold at the same time was 1,103,000,000 francs.

—The first correspondent says: "A few days since I was in the manufacturing of my business where I could not get at it to the point of view of the gold and hence arise."

were very disagreeable. So I got a few pennies worth of copperas, set a solution of it in the closet where the smell was strongest, and we were immediately relieved. This solution had to be renewed every day or two, but it absorbed entirely every trace of the unpleasant odor.

LADY FRANKLIN.

On the night of the 19th inst., Lady Franklin was killed by her husband, and a heart, as constant and faithful as ever beat in human breast, was laid to rest. It is a sad story of a husband and wife who lived in the same household, but who were separated by the horrible mould that the character of one is of the other, but this was the case of

Franklin and Lady Franklin. Sir John

Franklin was a man of whom it was true to

KNOWLEDGE MAIL.—Papers by the latest arrived steamer were distributed here this morning.

RYLES ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the members of the Hastings Rifle Association will be held this evening. See advertisement.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—We were requested to state that the Rev. Dr. Mulhern, formerly of Brockville, will preach in the Baptist Church next Sunday morning and evening.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.—The Prince

Edward medical men are to meet in Picton on Monday next, for the purpose of forming a Medical Association for that County.

EXCURSION.—The steamer Rochester started at an early hour this morning with an excursion party for the Thousand Islands, where the great international canal navigating is now being held.

IMMIGRANTS.—One hundred and thirty-eight immigrants, ex Perseus, passed west yesterday afternoon. Of these, one hundred and eighteen will remain in Ontario, the remainder going to Manitoba.

COW BROKER.—Somebody has been stealing cows in Tyndinburg, for John

Claw, of that township, telegraphed to his chief of police that a fat red cow with short horns, his property, has been stolen.

THE "JAY".—This yacht has been bought by the Ontario, and the Phillips state that it has been purchased by a company of gentlemen resident in Naples. Rumors to this effect have been floating about for a length of time.

WHITE ELEPHANT.—A New York paper announced a few days since, that a white elephant from Siam had arrived at this port and was to be exhibited here. The white elephant to Adam Foreman, the king of menagerie men. As his menagerie, museum, etc., is to exhibit here, now, we hope to have the pleasure of interviewing an animal so rare as the white elephant.

MAKING THE BEAR DANCE.—Two men were about the streets yesterday with a large brown bear, which they caused to dance and exercise after various fashions to the amusement of lookers-on—chiefly youngsters. Their profits were small, as the financial stringency seems to have reached the pockets of even the young folks.

THE MAMMOTH EXCURSION.—Mr. Treadwell has been working hard to make his mammoth excursion a success, and we believe he has succeeded in attracting that desirable end. The spot chosen is a beautiful one, and the attractions are so numerous that the enjoyment of those who attend is assured. The date for its taking place is the 27th, Tuesday next.

CHECKER.—All being well, the match between the Belleville and Hamilton clubs will be played here to-morrow. The team is largely made up of W. P. players, who,

we trust, will acquit themselves well, both at the bat and in the field. To achieve a victory over so strong an eleven as that which Hamilton sends forth would be a feat in their eyes. W. P. will begin at 10 o'clock, a. m.

METEOROLOGICAL HALL.—A full house greeted Tony Pastor's company last night.

It is not necessary to speak of the performance at length, as the entire company gave the utmost satisfaction, all the performers being well received and enthusiastically applauded. Mr. Pastor in his song, Mr. Korne-lie, in his North of Ireland dialect song, and speakings, and the Gamella Brothers, gymnasts, being perhaps the chief favorites of the evening. Should the company visit here again, they will attract a greater crowd than even that of last night.

REPARATE TESTS.—In deference to the wishes of that very large class in the com-

MORNING DESPATCHES.

The Passengers Saved.

LONDON, July 22nd.—The agent of the steamship, Aboukir, reports that she went down in a heavy fog, and passengers landed within thirty minutes, and all are comfortably situated at Liverpool. Although the steamer is leaking forward, the agents expect to get her off.

TWEED CASE.

ANOTHER DEFAULTING TREASURER.

New York, July 22.—A Washington

specialist to the Prisoners says that the President has announced his determination to make no present change in the department of the interior.

The Orchard House was destroyed by fire last night, July 21st. At ten o'clock to-night

the alarm of fire was sounded on the quiet

beach, the cupola of the Orchard House was seen to be in flames. A general alarm was at once given, causing quite a panic among the guests, many of whom had at the time retired. The fire worked down rapidly, giving some time to escape from the upper stories. Trunks, furniture, glass and tinware were thrown wildly from every window.

Women ran, screaming and some fainted.

The men were pretty quickly equipped. Telegrams were immediately sent to Portland and

Saco for help, and at 11:30 the engine arrived from Saco. Water is very scarce, and at this hour (11:30) no water from the steamer has been thrown.

SECOND DESTRUCTION.—The Old Orchard

House is now fast, and the men are doing their best to save the house. The Orchard

House is a building, built in 1840, and was formerly a hotel. It was burned out by fire last night. There were 250 guests at the

Orchard House when it was burned out and many of them lost their valuable clothing and jewelry. No one is yet reported injured.

TWO DEATHS.—At 11:20 a. m. a druggist

was killed on the steamer Windsor whileworking on the boiler. The Orchard

House is valued at $60,000; no insurance;

most of the valuable furniture is saved. Mr. Staples and his son are considering the situation very serious, and are very anxious to get the house out of the water. They are considering the possibility of its being sold for the comfort of the crowd of guests.

PARK, Ill., July 22.—The Revenue Agents

to-day seized a retreating liquor distilling company of Park, Ill., for distilling on a small scale for private use. The distillery

was immediately seized and the distiller

and his son are considering the possibility

of its being sold for the comfort of the crowd

of guests.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Notice of an appeal

by the people to the general term of the Supreme Court, from the decision of Justice

Donohue in favor of W. M. Tweed, in the six million dollars case, was served upon the defendants lawyers yesterday.

Major Deimars, of Long Island City, has reported to the Aldermen that Treasurer

Horn of that city is delinquent on each account owed to the city. The Aldermen have therefore passed a resolution to the effect that Horn should be removed from the office of Treasurer until he has paid the city the amount of his delinquency.

The Aldermen have also passed a resolution

Another Steamship Ashore.

The Passengers Saved.

LONDON, July 22nd.—The agent of the

steamship, Aboukir, reports that she went

down in a heavy fog, and passengers

landed within thirty minutes, and all are

expect to get her off.

specialist to the Prisoners says that the President has announced his

the department of the interior.

The Orchard House was destroyed by fire

last night, July 21st. At ten o'clock to-night

the alarm of fire was sounded on the quiet

was seen to be in flames. A general alarm

retired. The fire worked down rapidly, giv-

were thrown wildly from every window.

Women ran, screaming and some fainted.

grams were immediately sent to Portland and

been thrown.

House is now fast, and the men are doing their best to save the house. The Orchard

formerly a hotel. It was burned out by fire

last night. There were 250 guests at the

Orchard House when it was burned out and

many of them lost their valuable clothing and

jewelry. No one is yet reported injured.

TWO DEATHS.—At 11:20 a. m. a druggist

was killed on the steamer Windsor whileworking on the boiler. The Orchard

House is valued at $60,000; no insurance;

most of the valuable furniture is

saved. Mr. Staples and his son are considering the situation very serious, and are

of its being sold for the comfort of the crowd

of guests.

PARK, Ill., July 22.—The Revenue Agents

to-day seized a retreating liquor distilling

company of Park, Ill., for distilling on a small scale for private use. The distillery

and his son are considering the possibility

of its being sold for the comfort of the crowd

of guests.

by the people to the general term of the

six million dollars case, was served upon the

defendants lawyers yesterday.

Major Deimars, of Long Island City, has

reported to the Aldermen that Treasurer

Horn of that city is delinquent on each account

owed to the city. The Aldermen have

city the amount of his delinquency.

The Aldermen have also passed a resolution to the effect that Horn should be removed from the office of Treasurer until he has paid the city the amount of his delinquency.

The Aldermen have also passed a resolution

The Ald

LORD DUFFERIN.
THE ENTERTAINMENT

THE CANADA CLUB
114 EXCELCENCY'S PORCH
(From the London Times, July 8.)
The Canada Club entertained the Earl of Dufferin, Governor-General of Canada and a select party of guests at dinner on the Albion yesterday evening. Mr. T. Brookings was Chairman and Mr. Charles Churchill, Vice-President; and the company included the Duke of Manchester, Earl of Kintore, and Mr. J. H. Macdonald.

Mr. Underhill, Lord Lingar, Mr. Goschen, Mr. Mr. Childers, M. P.; Mr. Clinton, Mr. Mordaunt, Mr. M. G. G. Lieut. General Sir Hastings Doyle and many other distinguished personages.

In proposing the toast of the evening—"The Health of the Governor-General of Canada and the prosperity of the Dominion," the Chairman expressed the opinion that a more successful administration of the Empire than that of the late Governor-General, His Excellency's had seldom been witnessed in that part of the Empire.

Lord Dufferin's speech

The Earl of Dufferin said:—In raising a toast to the Governor-General, I have the honor to return thanks for the honor which has been done me by this splendid entertainment, and, for the kind and cordial manner in which my health has been received hope it will be understood that, however deeply I may feel the compliment paid me—and words would fail to express all that I experience on that score—personal gratitude and satisfaction is worded and lost in the profoundest consciousness that this brilliant assembly and distinguished men I see around me meet, not so much for the purpose of tending a welcome to a mere individual, but that they have become united to the desire to pay a tribute of respect to the great Dominion of which I am the honor to praise, and testify their sympathy with the and glorious purpose with which we minity, their kindness and fellow citizens who on the other side of the Atlantic engaged in building up a nation congenial to their own, instinct with the same high spirit of constitutional freedom and determined to prove itself a power and worthy member of the British Empire. (Cheers.) My lords and gentlemen, it is this consideration alone which can give importance and significance to the demonstration of to-night, and to proceedings which will be scanned and discussed with unpeppable pride and pleasure by the eyes of your fellow subjects in the distant Canadian home—(“Hear, hear.”)—for there is one predilection more than than among the Canadian people, there is one passion—if I may so call it—which predominates over every other feeling in their breasts, if there is one message which a person in my situation should transmit from them to you, it is that they desire to be free in industry and commerce, to have the same connection with the rest of the world as the other countries; that they cherish an inviolable conviction of the pre-eminence value of a political system under which they live; and that they are determined to preserve pure and uncontaminated all the traditional characteristics of England's prosperity (policy) (cheers). But, my lords and gentlemen, I should be conveying a very wrong impression if I gave you to understand stand that the enthusiastic loyalty of the Canadian people to the Crown and people of our gracious Sovereign, their tender solicitude for the welfare of the Empire, their yearning love for the mother country, their desire to claim their part in the future fortunes of the British Empire, to sustain all the obligations such a position may imply, was born of any sense of unworthy spirit of dependence. (Hos., 1890, p. 20)

So far from being a sign of weakness, such a sense of national feeling is a characteristic of the nation that is most strongly marked than those their exuberant confidence in their abilities to shape their destinies in their appointed issues, the jealous pride of the legislative autonomy with which they have been endowed, and with scientific and personal devotion to land which whose ample bosom they have been nurtured, and which they justly regard as more largely flowered with all that can endear a country to its sons than either in the world. (Chenevix) And perhaps I may be permitted to remark the extraordinary ability and intelligence with which the French portion of Her Majesty's subjects in Canada join with the British fellow-countrymen in working out the development of the constitutional privileges with which, thanks to the initiative of the first two, they have been so richly endowed. Our French fellow-countrymen are, in fact, more Parliamentary than English themselves, and in the various tunes of the colony there have never wanted French statesmen of eminence claim an equal share with their British legacies in shaping the history of the nation. Wintever may be the case where, in Canada, at all events, the French has learned the golden rule of the victor, and the necessity of the political results by the occasional sacrifice of logical symmetry for the sake of settlement disputes in the spirit of a generous compromise. (Chiefs.) The fruit of this state of things is observable in the fact nowhere do these differences of opinion divide the political world of a country separate the Canadian nation either into religious or ethnological tions. Religion and race are, of course, observable forces acting within our politics, but as far as I have remarked, divisions of party are perpendicular rather than horizontal, and in a county and rough election as often as not Catholicism is found voting against Catholic, Orangemen against Orangemen, Frenchmen against Frenchmen, and what, perhaps, causes less surprise, Irishmen against Irishmen. I am certain there have never been any individuals who have greater cause for opportunities for appreciating these characteristics of a popular assembly than the persons who, like my predecessors and self, have had the good fortune to represent the County of Down.

And, my lords and gentlemen, these circumstances to which I have briefly alluded, I am happy to say, continually render me more and more recognition as the least worthy of the people of this country; but which is even of greater importance than those of the inhabitants of the United States. Nothing, in fact, can be so friendly than the relations and feelings which prevail between the Canadian people and their neighbors across the frontier. Whatever may have been the case in former times, every thoughtful citizen of the United States is now convinced that the fate of Canada will be unalterably fixed and determined, and that she is destined to remain for ever an integral and united part of our own empire.

vidual orbit. So far from regarding with jealousy, the public of the United States contemplates with a generous enthusiasm the daily progress of Canada's COMMERCIAL.

NEW BRUNSWICK MARKET.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 23.

Yesterday's fair advanced 25 cents a barrel on all grades.

AMERICAN LUMBER MARKETS.

The New York City market of the 16th inst. reports continued decline in the market.

Sagunap reports more activity for the week ending 16th than there had been for the preceding two months.

Chicago reports no improvement in the trade, and no one is daily working.

Buffalo reports a slight improvement in the trade, owing to a decline in lake freight.

Boston reports that stocks are accumulating, but quotations are not unusually lower than they were the week previous.

Wire cables are about to be tried on Lake Huron for raft towing purposes.

INGERSOLL CHEESE MARKET.

At the market yesterday 22 factories were represented, offering 6,250 boxes, of which 3,000 boxes were sold upon the market at the following prices:

1,000 boxes at	10c.
1,500 boxes at	10c.
2,000 boxes at	10c.

The market was dull and the offerings small, which was due to the influence of the depression of the Liverpool and New York markets. There are many different opinions as to the future of the English market. Some think it will go to a low level, while many are confident that the market will be already touched bottom.

After the close of the market several sales took place, and we have 1,500 boxes being sold at 10 to 11c. Friday, July 23.

Arrivals Reported at Custom House.

RECEIVED, July 23.

For U. S. T. R. from Ritchie & Co., 1 case; H. H. Hays, 70 lbs. each; W. H. Robinson, 1 box.

For EXPORT—K. Hamilton, 1 lb. H. Wilson, 1 box.

Daily Intelligencer.

TOWN AND VICINITY.

A SNOW—A light shower of rain fell Belleville this morning, which will be for a great deal of good.

FOR THE SEA—Quite a number of our citizens with their families left for the sea this morning for the Montevideo.

A LARK CATCH—A scene on the beach near Wellington brought in 4000 whitefish at a single haul one day last week, and three thousand at another.

CRICKET—The Picton New Nation says of the 24th inst: "Next week our Club goes west for a week's trip, playing Belleville, Brighton, Colborne, and other Clubs."

THE TRENTON ROUTE—A telegram from Trenton at one o'clock this afternoon says, respecting the Republic: "Racy, interesting, witty, happy, perpetua upon Shore, but suggestive."

HAVERSTON—Farmers are busy just now getting in their hay. The weather last week was splendid, and the crop was housed in good condition. In many parts of the country, the hay harvest has commenced.

STOLEN—The Picton New Nation says: A watch valued at from $100 to $150 was stolen from the house of W. Swift, Esq., Hillier, on Monday afternoon. Three tramps were suspected and pursued, but they were not recovered.

PERSONAL—In the Victoria (British Columbia) Standard, of the 12th July, we notice the arrival of Mr. A. C. Keefe, C. E., of Belleville, in company with other engineers, who are to proceed immediately from the mouth of the coast.

YOMMAN'S CONCERT—Do not forget the Children's Concert at Adolphus tomorrow, per the steamer Rock. Everything will not be a very large attendance, and the Concert by over a thousand children, under the superintendence of so able a manager as Mr. Yomman, must prove a rich treat. There are to be five bands.

COWS AT LARGE—Complaints are made to us that cows are still allowed to run at large, and are doing considerable damage to gardens and flower-plots. Every day yesterday we noticed two cows quietly grazing in the yard of a resident on Taylor's Hill, and from the condition of the geranium and fuchsia in the flower-plot, the cows were evidently not content with the rich feed of grass they had obtained. Cannot the By-law be more rigidly enforced?

NOT A RAILROAD SHOW—Our readers should bear in mind that Foreigner's great demonstration of machinery, at Niagara, N.Y., which is to exhibit on the 29th in front of the Niagara Falls, is not a railroad show, as it is not transported by rail, nor is it a great overland show, moving over the country with one thousand men and horses, three hundred animals, and wagons, five elephants, 1,200,000 lbs. of 200,000 beautiful fish, 10,000,000 of cattle, a herd of camels, carrying a force of farmers, carpenters, harness makers, and innumerable companies of men, and is equi-ped with elaborate machinery. Any one desiring to place people viewing along the route can see for themselves that it is, in truth, the most stupendous amusement enterprise in the known world.

BELLEVILLE BRANCH OF THE TORONTO CROCHET ASSOCIATION—A correspondent furnishes us with the following: "We received notice that the Association, formed a short time ago, is now fully organized.
An informal meeting was held in Mr. Harris's Music Room on Thursday evening, 22nd inst., for the purpose of adopting a Constitution, and electing officers. The following were present: Messrs. J. L. Hamilton, President; C. L. Coleman, Vice-President; W.
H. M. D., Sec. V. J. M. D., and W. D. M.
The following were elected: James Young, President; W. H. M. D., Vice-President; W.
H. M. D., Sec. V. J. M. D., and W. D. M.
In addition to which there is an Executive Committee of four persons, comprising the general work of the Association. We quote the following from the Constitution: "The purpose of this Association is to promote the game of croquet, and to cooperate with the Church Association of Toronto in upholding the principles and order of the Church of England, and especially to counteract the evil of being made to associate for the purpose of the Church of Rome."

An attraction of wonderfully great interest is creating much wonder in London. The figure, which is a man of middle age and springy, dressed with skill and figures out simple arithmetical problems. It is placed on a table with a glass top, so that it seems to be in reality. It is connected with whatever agency controls the intelligent movement of the human figure by exhibiting it, and men of considerable scientific repute are trying thus far in vain, to duplicate the trickery.

THE SHIPPING BILL.

Death of Vicomte de Beaumont.

SEVERE DROUGHT.

LETTER FROM DON CARLOS.

LONDON, July 25. The Times understands that Pimoli has procured a revival of his Shipping Bill which he previously introduced in favor of the Government measures. It will now be placed on the order book for Thursday.

Pimoli will then propose to the House, and consequently the passage of the Bill is a personal measure for one year only.

Paris, July 25.—Vicomte de Beaumont Vass, a well-known political writer, a leader of the extreme left in the Chamber of Deputies, reports according to several districts of the Province of Meuse, which has destroyed the crops and pastures. Famines is threatened and the people are suffering from want.

Cattle are dying of hunger and the local authorities report that it will be impossible to collect taxes in many places as an attempt to do so, they fear would cause an insurrection.

London, July 25.—A similar state of affairs at Algiers. The Government is sending troops to the afflicted sections.

London, July 25.—Don Carlos's letter to Alfonso, declares that the cruelty of the measures ordered by the Madrid Government is unprecedented, and will, like the death of martyrs, raise up Carlists everywhere. He himself who calls to his country to be King of all Spaniards, allows Alfonso to live peacefully within his fortified sections.

A Ship of Solomon.

By Arizona's sea of sand None bearded miners grave and old,
And resolute in search of gold, Sat down to tap the savage land.
They tented in a canyon's mouth
That gaped against the warm wind south.
And underneath the water-washed wall,
Where dew, nor rains, nor winds may fall,
They delved the level salt-white sands For gold, with bold and horny hands.

And miner stood beside his mine,
He pulled his beard, then looked away Across the level sea of sand, Beneath his broad and hairy hand,
A hand as hard as knots of pine.

It looked like a sea," said he.
He pulled his beard and he did say,
"It looks just like a dried up sea." Again he pulled that beard of his,
But said no other thing than this.

A stalwart miner dealt a stroke,
And struck a buried beam of oak;
An old ship's beam the shaft appeared,
With storn-worn faded figurehead,
The miner twisted his long beard, Lensed on his pick-axe as he spoke:
"Some of our long-lost ship," he said,
"Some of our olden ship of Solomon That sailed these waters as you know In search of Ophir's mine; ah, yes, That sailed this dried-up desert sea."

This place was a centre of great attraction, as it might well be, considering the history of Cranganam in that neighborhood. Here it was that, after the Battle of the Oranmore, the Oranmore Association was permanently organized in Ireland; on the day of the Battle of the Diamond, Sept. 21, 1795, a meeting of a few was held at the residence of a Mr. Blount, those who professed themselves together by the name of the 12th, loyal to the Protestant King, to his religion and to one another." It is no wonder, therefore, that "the 12th" was celebrated here with great enthusiasm. The Districts of Armagh, Kerry, Riddell, Portadown, Vernalbridge, and Loughall, were represented by all the Lodges. The roads leading to the village were literally crammed with men, women, and children; the roads were lined with hostessons of "Orange Leagues," "Purple Rocketts," and "Sweet Leagues," while the all had arrived, it was estimated that from 30,000 to 40,000 people were present. During the proceedings the greatest enthusiasm prevailed, the town being in what might be called a "quiet uproar." A number of places, arches artistically got up, spanned the streets. The Rev. Chas. V. Ring occupied the chair at the open meeting held in a field of Sir Thos. B. B. son's, Bart.

FANERIDGE.

Orangemen celebrated the day with their brethren of Gilford, not however by forming in procession in their own town. The Lodges in the Baurbridge district numbered over 20; these when formed into procession were over forty minutes in passing a given point; an immense number of sympathisers followed them. On reaching Loughmacown they were met by the Orangemen of the Gilford district, when they all united and proceeded to the morning there was a large assembly in town; at 9 o'clock the Orangemen commenced assembling at the Orange Hall; after parading through the principal streets the procession—which was a most imposing one—proceeded to Mona. In the picturesque little town of all business was suspended, and every one seemed to give themselves up to the joyous enjoyments of the great Protestant Anniversary. The town was decorated with arches stretched across the streets. A executed Orange troo was erected on Town-pump, and the ingenuity and good taste displayed in its adornment was the subject of much conversation.

You are trying to get on. You have a situation. It supports you; not me more. You had one before that did the same; so you gave it up. There has been—now that you think of it—a good many places you have given up "to bother yourself," and somehow you are not much better yet. Suppose you had waited! And is on trial for some time in most places. Wise employers "wait and see." But when Thompson gives notice and leaves at the end of six months, they have not had

SATURDAY, JULY 31, 1875.

Town and Vicinity.

Town Market.—The market was very well attended to-day although farmers are lazy in the harvest field. All kinds of farmers and gardeners' products were in plentiful supply at moderate prices.

TOMATOES.—For a few days past, this choice fruit has been in limited supply, the market, but at prices which with limited means were unable to touch. The price asked to-day was only fifteen cents per pound.

BERRIES.—About the last of the raspberry crop was in market to-day. Although the crop has been the largest in years, the price has not varied much, the average being from 7 to 10 cents. Today 8 to 10 cents was the ruling price.

A DIVER.—The Napanee Bore has hit Messrs. A. C. Davis & Co. here by an unfortunate accident for preventing their men sitting in the doorway of their shop.
About 7 o'clock in the evening the steps are flooded with water, and the average lander has a great sorrow of that fluid, the experience is a success.

BARLEY CROP.—The weather during this week past has been exceedingly favorable for harvesting the barley crop and the bulk of the crop has been hoisted in capital condition. The berry is plump and white, and the yield is large. Bar of Quinte barley will maintain the reputation this year in the United States markets at the best on the continent.

A CONTRAST.—The market grounds presented to-day quite a contrast to what they did last Saturday. The dust a week ago was most formidable. It crept into your eyes, and found its way up your nostrils, and made a liberal deposit in your mouth, while butter and berries and meat and vegetables were covered with the dust. Today, through the kindness of Mr. Bill, the grounds were well sprinkled with water, and marketing was consequently a joy.
There was no grumbling at the Market Committee, and fault-finding was at a discount. Now, Messrs. Market Committee, if you could only realize the comfort and pleasure which the sprinkling of the Market grounds gave to the people, you would give orders at once to have the grounds sprinkled at least on the regular market days.

Defeated.

By-law submitted to the people by the City Council, which had for its object the settling of the question of the weight of rail to be used on the proposed Prince Edward Railway, was voted upon by the people last night, and the result below will show, was defeated by a majority of 804 votes, with Manassas Point Division, Annapolisburg, against it of 847 votes."

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

DEAR SIR:—Noticing a communication in yesterday's paper under the signature of "Fair Play," commenting on the report that appeared in the Intelligencer of the 27th inst., which took place on the farm of H. Ashley (now of Thirion) on the 27th inst.,—now I claim that the report of the trial was in every particular, which can be verified by the disinterested judges, who, I believe, were chosen by Mr. Ashley.

"Fair Play" seems to give over the fact, that the "Champion" came out victorious, and now under the name of "Fair Play" visit the women on the decision of the judges, and reports of that trial. Now Sir, if "Fair Play" is so much dissatisfied, and wishes another trial, we will comply with his request, and the well known reputation of the Champion, which he himself will be so proud to behold as lost as at the trial alleged. If "Fair Play" in conclusion to state that if "Fair Play" has more brains and common sense, he would be more careful in future in his communications,—constructing himself not only when he states facts, but also when he states opinions, and in the trial, his claims regarding the "Fair Play" trial, and the complaints of the judges, and the trial of G. & J. Brown's was the opinion of the judges entirely.

In future, "Fair Play" I trust will, if he has another opportunity of testing the merits of our machine, to graciously accept of the advice, and not allow a personal claim pre-eminence for defeat.

EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON DEAD.

Fort Scott, Kansas, July 31.—Nearly an entire block of buildings were burned in Pawnee, Kansas, to-day. Loss $25,000; insurance being from 7 to 10 cents. Today 8 to 10 cents was the ruling price.

St. Louis, July 31.—A severe storm from south-west, with a very heavy rain, occurred in that section during the past two or three days. At Yuma a large part of the town is inundated and considerable damage done. The Atlantic and Pacific Railway over Spring river was swept away and several hundred yards of the track washed out. Pretty serious wash-outs occurred at various other places, and trains will be unable to pass for several days. Crops are being seriously injured or wholly destroyed in the bottoms along Spring river and other streams and much other property swept away.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., July 31.—The crop situation in this State, as well as in large portions of the adjacent States, is becoming very alarming. There is a heavy rain-fall every day, and serious intermissions with wind, aggravate the evil. This kind of weather has continued for about six weeks, and is believed to be without parallel. In the last day or two the rainfall has increased, and gloomy apprehensions are felt in all sections of the State. The corn crop has been damaged seriously and it is believed that the crop of wheat, oats, rye, barley, and hay have been injured fully 50 per cent. in quality, and sprouted in the shock; at least two-thirds is already ruined.
Corn is in fair condition in low lands, which are under water; oats and hay in some sections are rotting on the ground, and fair weather for two weeks would not enable farmers to save more than half the crop. The wheat crop is almost entirely destroyed. Rainfall, heavily through the State to-night, and streams already bank full will pass beyond all restraint to-morrow.

CINCINNATI, July 31.—The reports from all portions of southern Ohio give gloomy accounts of continual rain and damage to crops.
The Big Miami river to-night at Clermont is rising at the rate of six inches per hour, and bottoms are all under water. These thousand acres of corn between Clermont and Lawrenceburg are flooded. At Morrow, O., a terrible rain-fall occurred this a. m., and the Little Miami river is reported to be rising. The heavy rain of Monday night has done much damage to the crops. The damage by the storm of Wednesday night (was immense) wheat and oat crops are reported entirely washed away, and the Muskingum river is full of floating grain.
At all points rain is reported, so still falling and great danger is apprehended from further overflow of rivers and smaller streams. Crops are considered entirely lost.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 31.—Special telegrams from today to the line of the Iron Mountain Railroad, in Missouri, prevented any train from arriving in this city yesterday.

New York, July 31.—The report emanating yesterday that several theatrical parties are heavy losses by the failure of Duncan, Shorman & Co., proves to be without foundation in many instances, and letters have been received from J. T. Raymond, J. Brothman and W. Westphal, denying that they are losers.

The Sun says that Augustus Store, Treasurer of the Plymouth Church, has paid to Henry Ward Beecher $30,000 as the first instalment of the $100,000 salary. The meetings of the Board of Trustees have been held within the past three weeks, and there has been very much difference of opinion bordering almost on dissension, as to how the remaining $70,000 should be raised. The amount paid to Beecher was a surprise that the people noted at the sale in January, and covers his salary for the year.

The Trustees of the Plymouth Church, who stated that the official of the Plymouth Church intended to raise $80,000 additional salary for Mr. Beecher by mortgage. A Relief fund if now being raised, and the money of the Plymouth Church for the benefit of Mr.
Beecher.

Extolled time for defendants to answer in tensive lager beer brewery at Marion, N. J.,

A member of the Executive Committee of the Western Union Company, well acquainted with Commodore Vanderbilt, was questioned as to the truth or falsity of the report that Vanderbilt was ready to sell out his stock.

He said: "You need not say my name, but I can assure you that Mr. Vanderbilt is perfectly willing to part with the Western Union stock he holds. It cost him $6, and he never will sell it at a loss. If he were to sell, the Commodore will sell out any one who will give him his price for it, but the retirement of Vanderbilt from the Board would not necessarily involve the retirement of his friends. Vanderbilt has a large number of followers in all enterprises which he enters into, and in our Board such as Work, Barker and Thorne, are all looked upon as his friends. All these gentlemen have ideas which are in many of the Commodore, and have doubtless made a good deal of money in buying and selling stock, and have generally a very nice thing of it in enjoying the privileges the Board has for the purpose of transacting their own private business. I do not believe that these gentlemen would sell out their stock even if Vanderbilt should. There is $35,000, 000 of the Western Union stock in the hands of the Commodore, and his friends and his $11,000,000, making $46,000,000 in all, enough to control the Board at all elections. If Mr. Jay Gould desires to control this Board he will have to buy out the Vanderbilt clique as well as the Commodore.
He to-day owns more of the Western Union stock than does Vanderbilt. It is well known in our Board that Jay Gould owns 75, 000,000 dollars of Western Union Stock against $5,000,000 held by the Commodore.
Should he buy out the interest of Commodore Vanderbilt, which latter is quite willing to sell, the moment the stock rises above 85, Gould, with the $75,000,000 will be very easy to controlling the Board. He will have to purchase it all himself, however, for he can't rely upon his friends; he has no such following as the Commodore has, but he makes up in cash what he lacks in support.

Mountain Meadow Massacre.
Braver, Utah, July 30.—The defense in the Mountain Meadow trial called several witnesses to-day, and the jury was asked to show that the emigrants poisoned an ox and killed the meat to the Indians at Coon Creek; also that George A. Smith, one of the Presidents of the Mountain Meadows massacre, was using the people not to kill, grain and provisions on account of the invasion from Johnson's army, but he did not refer or know anything about this trial. No evidence was offered to clear Lee Smith, connected with the massacre. The defense is expected to close tomorrow.

AUSTRALIA.
Melbourne, July 30.—The budget has met with great opposition in Parliament, and passed the preliminary stages by only one majority. The Ministry will probably resign consequently.

THE NATHAN MURDER.

NEW DISCLOSURES.

Senator Johnson's Death Contradicted.

New York, July 31.—Investigation by the Assembly Committee on crime in New York yesterday developed a new theory of the Nathan murder. Sidney H. Cookin, ex-police officer, testified that he was detailed to work up the case of robbery of Mr. Lord's house, and arrested a burglar, who was identified by a servant. In his value was a linen drawer, on the shoulder and back of which were the imprints of the blood of a man's hand with the finger missing. On the way to the Police court prisoner said "that water will hang me."
Justice McGuire removed him to the station.
In the station Cookin threw on the table a paper which was a picture of Washington Nathan calling for help at the front door of his house on the morning after his father was murdered. The prisoner looked at it and said it was a shame that he could not water will hang me." Justice McGuire removed him to the station. In the station Cookin threw on the table a paper which was a picture of Washington Nathan calling for help at the front door of his house on the morning after his father was murdered. The prisoner looked at it and said it was a shame that he could not suffer for the rich man's crime; the prisoner gave the name of Michael Ryan; he said he was detailed to work up the case of robbery of Mr. Lord's house, and arrested a burglar, who was identified by a servant. In his value was a linen drawer, on

the shoulder and back of which were the im-
prints of the blood of a man's hand with the finger missing. On the way to the Police
Justice McGuire removed him to the station.
